Red Bud High School Presented LIFE WITH FATHER

The Stars of Our Play — Julie Litton and Doug Zschiegner

This year's play was a period play, it took place in the 1880's. To perform the play correctly it was necessary to borrow antiques and rent costumes. Many hours of hard work went into the production of this play. The play opened on April 20. It was presented three consecutive nights. Overall, the play was a big success.

Although the Red Bud Boys Track Team experienced a 3-13 duel and triangular record there were several bright spots along the way. Brian Wegener, MVP of the team, hurdled his way into the number one spot in all time scoring among RBHS trackmen. Co-captain Chuck Haynes qualified for the IHSA state track meet for the third year in a row and in the process moved into second place in all-time points. The mile relay team of Charlie Fox, co-captain Mike Quigly, Mike Renner, and Brian Wegener ran the third fastest mile relay in RBHS history. Frank Melliore, a member of the 100-point club, won the pole vault in the Red Bud Invitational. The other senior, Bruce Quinn would have strengthened the running corps greatly if it hadn't been for an injury. The team will greatly miss all the above-mentioned seniors.

The women's track team had a good year with many good individual performances. They placed high in their own invitational and qualified two women to state. Jan Muench missed in her specialty but made it in the long jump. Lynn Krause was disappointed by not making it in the high jump but made it in the 440 Dash. The relay teams did well but were just out of the money. The seniors will be missed next year as they helped to contribute many points.

Red Bud High School is always exciting. But Monday morning is something special. What makes it exciting for you?

Sandy Spalt — "Monday's are exciting for me — I like the hum in the halls as details of the weekend are exchanged excitedly between friends; the challenge of a new week's work and the 'we're all in this together' feeling of R.B.H.S."

William Wilkinson — "Looking forward to the before school guidance work that takes place in my room."

Janice Becker — "Knowing the band will show improvement during the week, and so will Miller and Schaeffer."

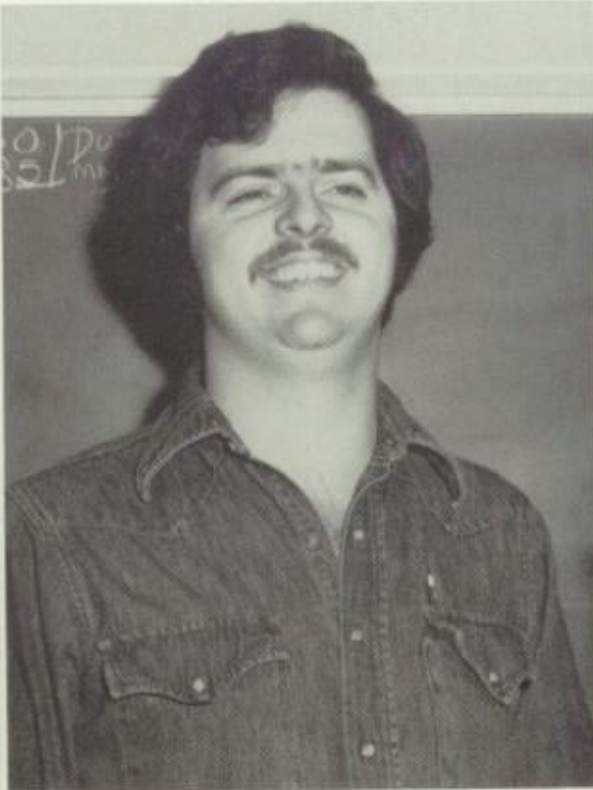

Charles Wimber — "Knowing that the week will show accomplishments for many students at R.B.H.S."

Pat Diehl — "Knowing there is only four more days until Friday."

Joyce Broughton — "The Prospect of seeing the faces of all the eager students as they begin another week of learning."

Eddie Billingsley — "It's the thrill of keeping the teenage minds awake for another week."

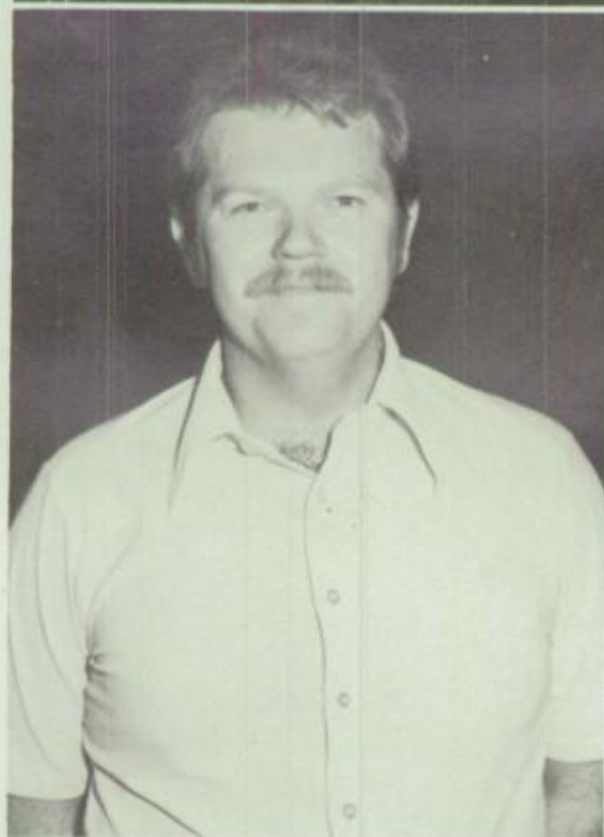

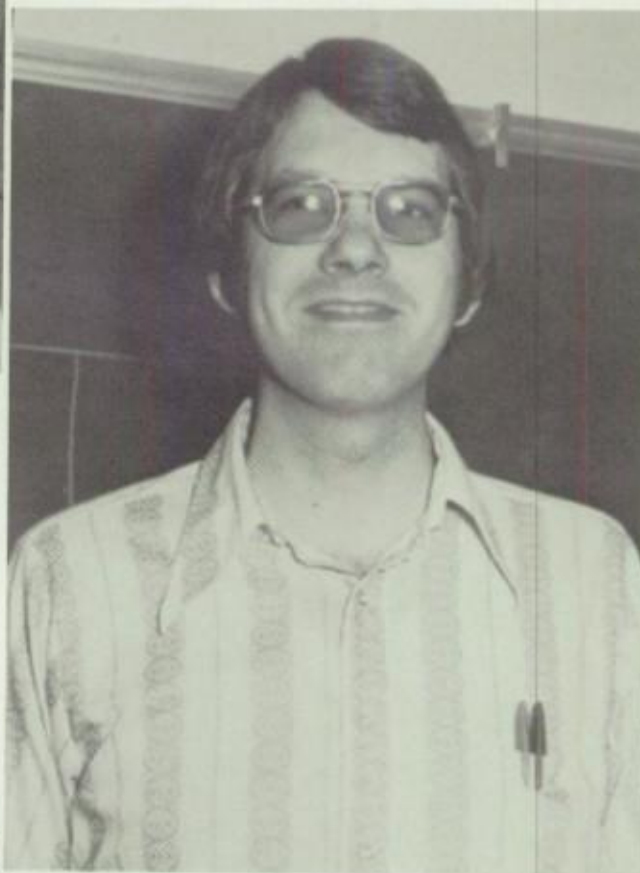

Maura Hemann — "Those bright shining faces all snug in their places."

Vicki Peppes — "Snow"

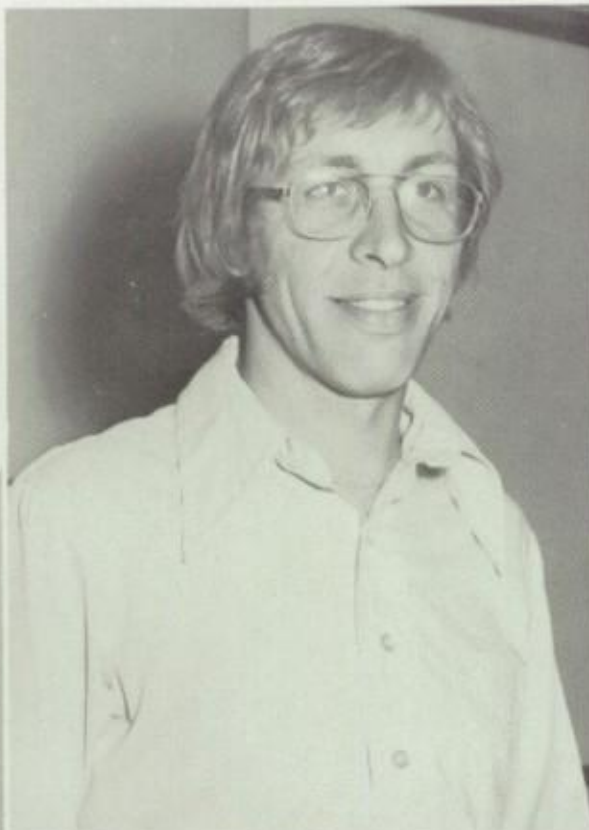

Steve Henne — "The morning announcements."

Mike Crockett — "Arriving on the scene and realizing I've made it through another weekend."

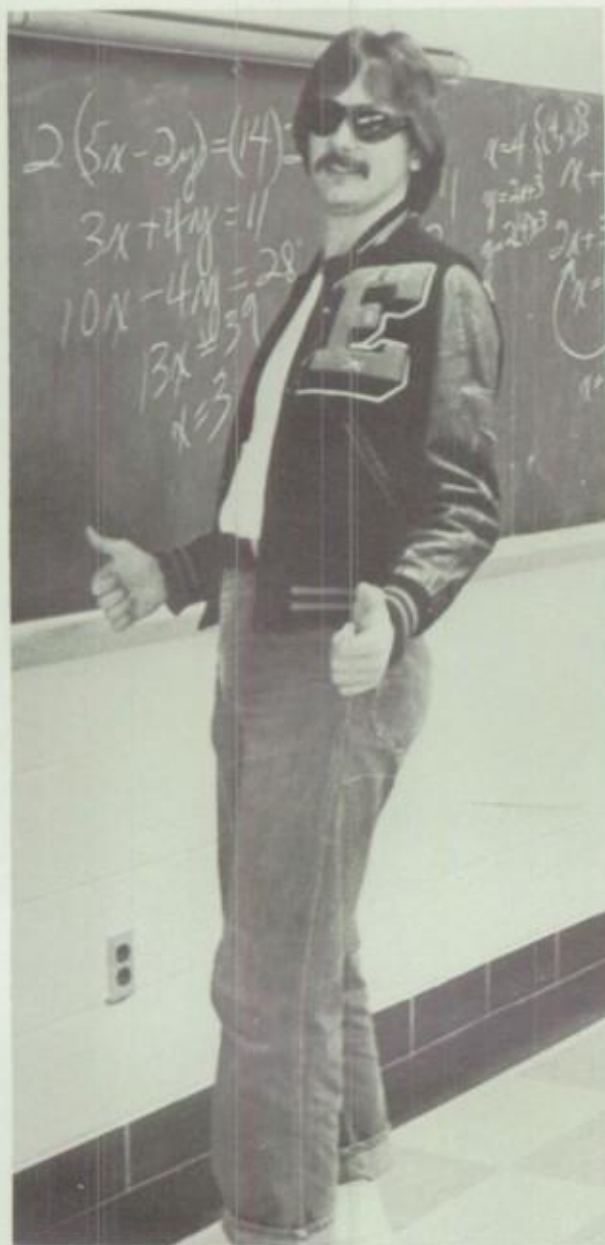

Dorothy McConachie — "Anticipation of seeing how many students make it back from the weekend."

Robert Ashley — "The anticipation of finding out what the new week has to offer."

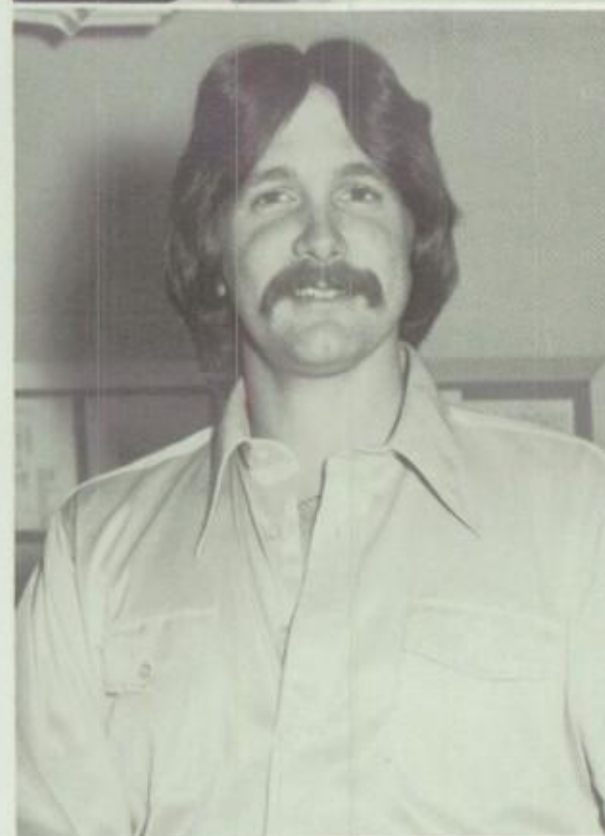

Glenna Glenn — "Taking hickey count."

Margaret Pickett — "Looking forward to what new novels Jean Prigge would be reporting that day."

Dennis Erlich — "Monday mornings are exciting for me because of all the repeated "Whadidigetondatest?" questions I hear. These questions are in reference to the previous Friday's test. The look of apprehension and excitement is rewarding for me to see. It indicates that there are still some students that care about their grades and personal performance."

Carol Holland — "The chance to recover from the weekend."

Jim Pflasterer — "Facing my bright-eyed, alert 7:30 Co-op class."

Sheila Parks — "Not having to arrive until 12:00 NOON."

Jean Spahr — "Seeing everyone in such a good mood."

Robert Baker — "Bertha's coffee."

Edd Devall — "Reading the menu to 1st hour class."

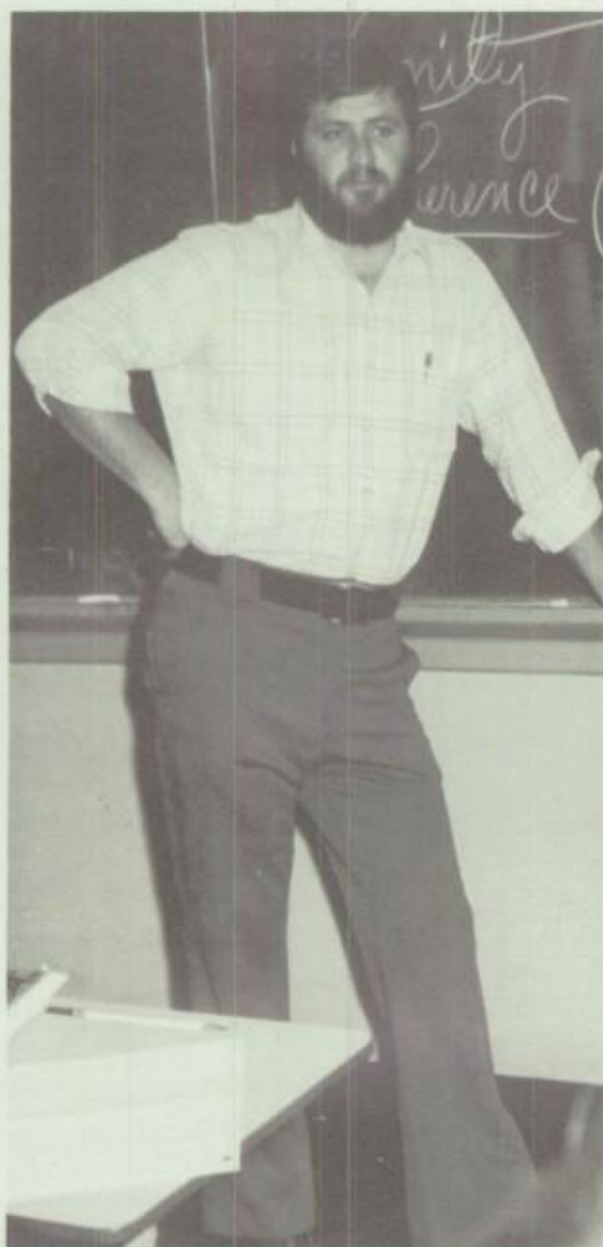

Richard Griffin — "Knowing that we have sporting events that we could possibly win during the week."

Jeri Traser — "Las caras contentas de mis alumnos. ¡Ja! ¡Ja!"

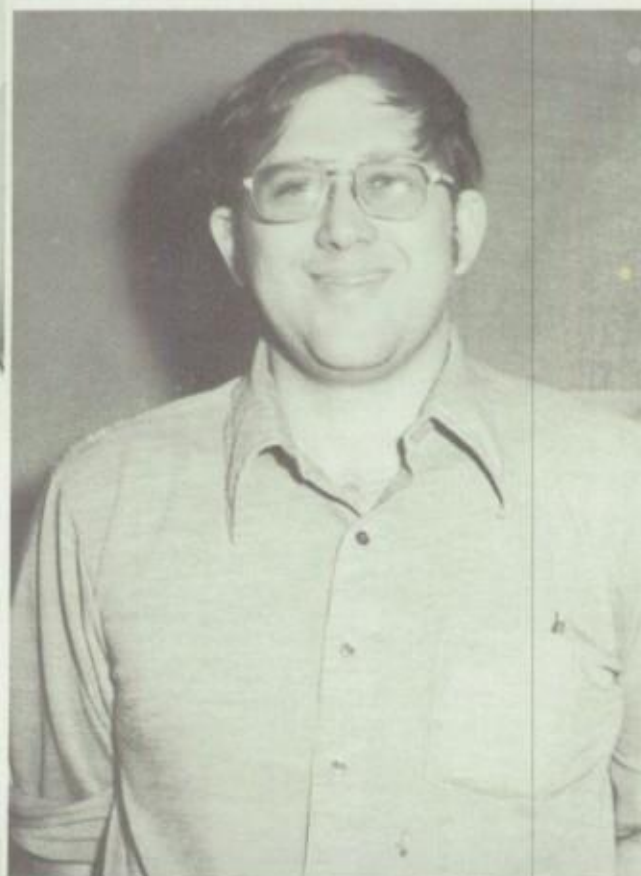

Steve Vaughn — "Trying to get through Charles Street to the parking lot."

Joyce Simmons — "The "bright and eager" faces of the students lining the hallways."

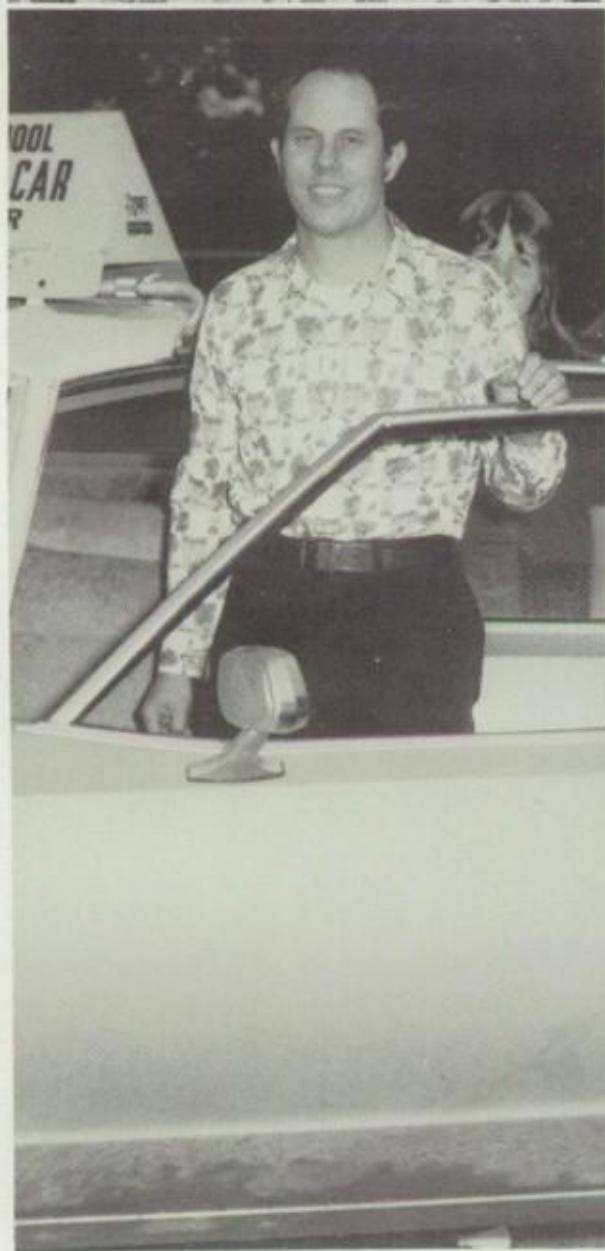

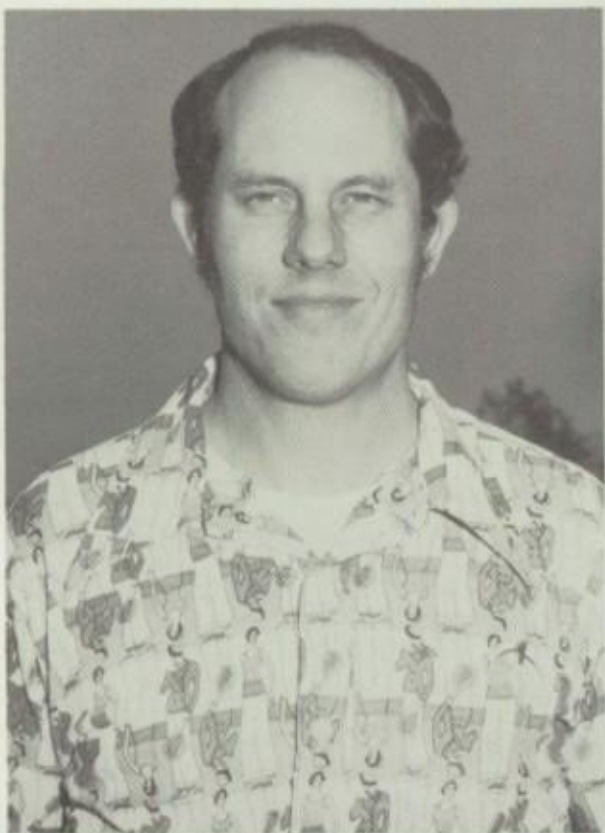

Robert Robley — "The challenge of the new week."

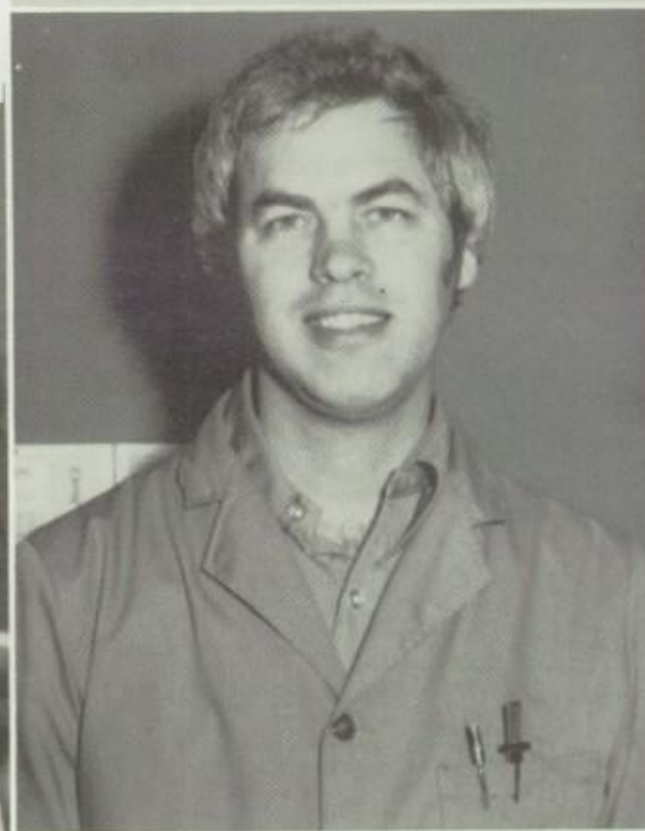

John Osman — "Finding thought provoking questions like "What makes Monday morning exciting for you at Red Bud High School?" in my mailbox."

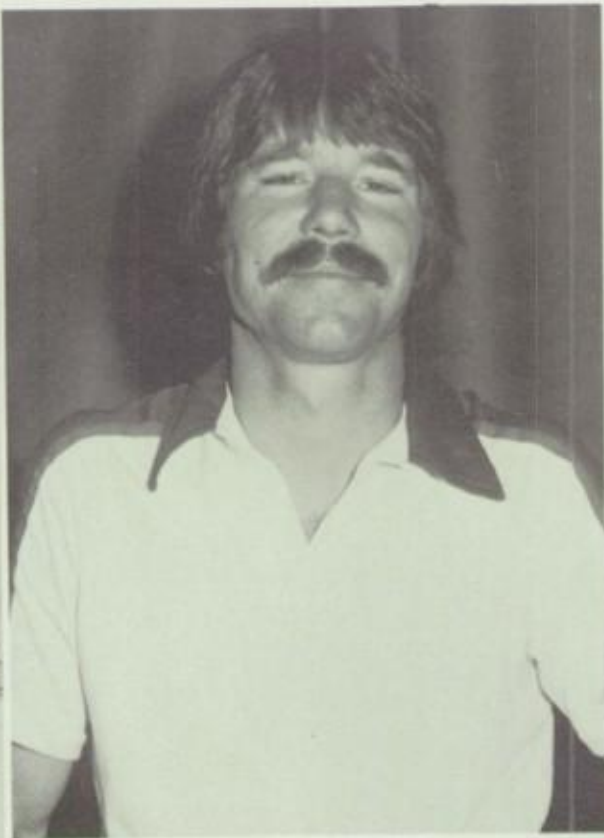

Ray Spahr — "The realization that someone did not total the Driver's Ed. car during the prior week."

Sandy Griffin — "A win of an athletic event on a Friday or Saturday night."

Ron Weseloh — "Trying to get started off on the right foot to make the whole week run smoothly."

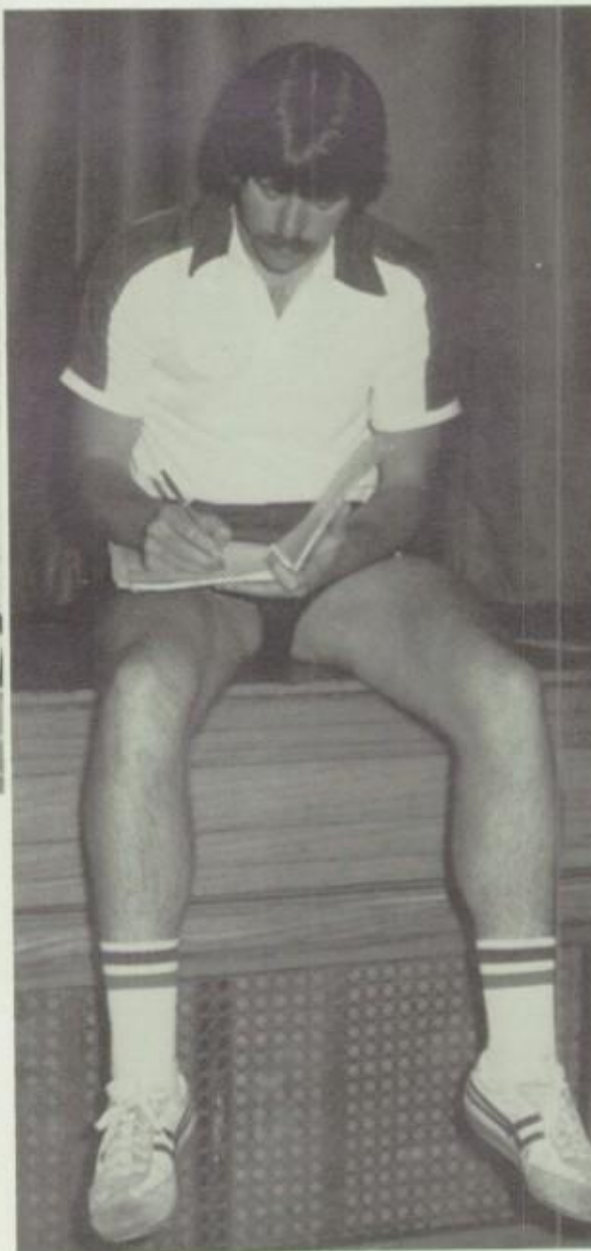

Doug Aschermann — "To be greeted by people with winning attitudes."

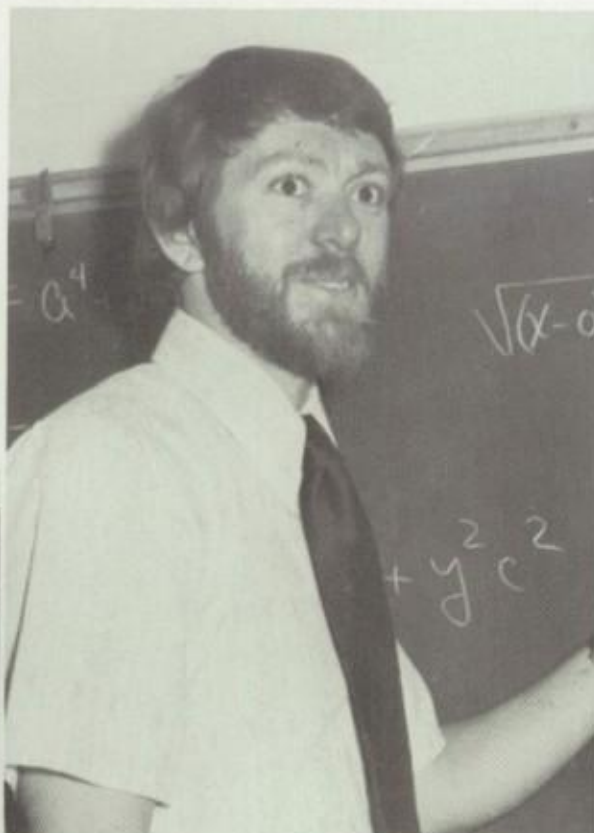

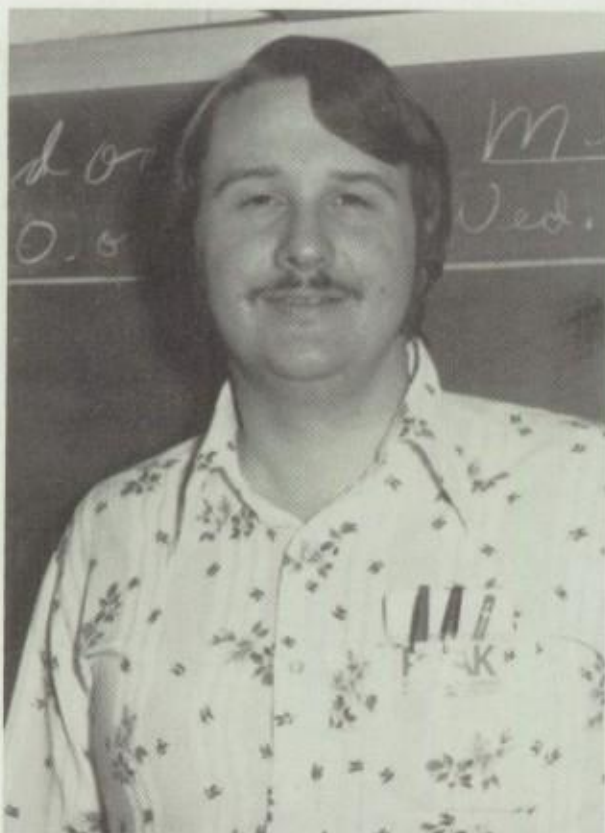

Tim Rekosh — "Hoping my car will make it to the road, then to town, then to school."

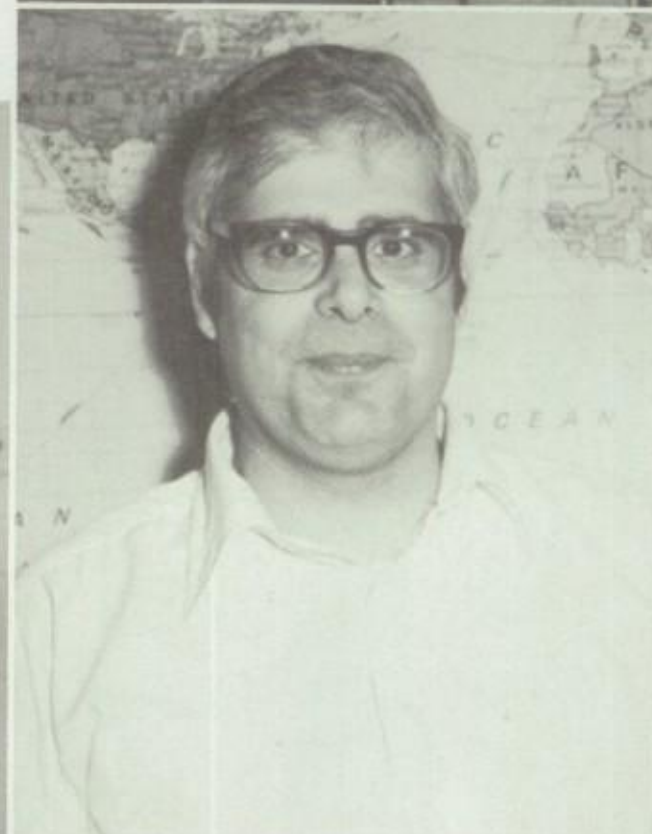

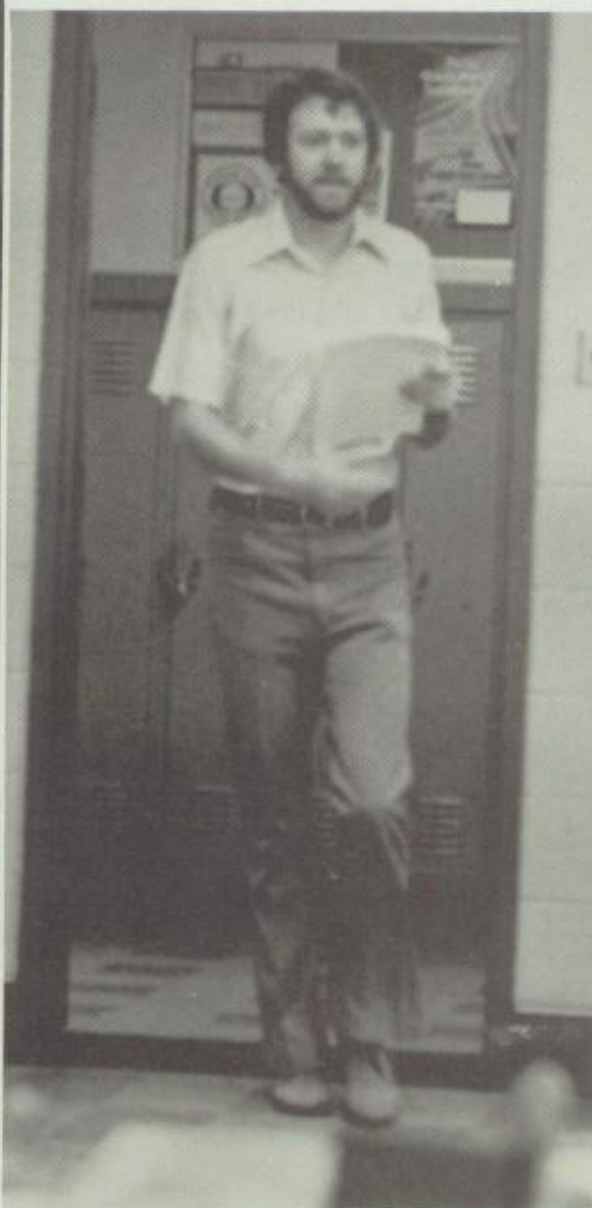

Thomas May — "Listening to great words of wisdom first hour from Dan Kane and Matt Becker."

Jim Spencer — "Thinking about all the great work that will be done in the shop areas this week."

Pat Hughes — "Only four more days to Friday."

Tom Stephanides — "Knowing that my classes will have a good time while learning."

THE END

Bar, I'm a guy who is another brother to me.
I get just as mad at you as I do much for me! You'll so don't do it. Because let me! You'll so keep on Partyin' and have a good time.
Remember the day we could have made a river, we could have been finding those people in rain. We had a good time.
to follow. If you ever need me - I'm always there!
Good luck - and have a good year.

Your sister,
Much love,

Angel
